

LEISURE . . . AS IT USED TO BE
Dining in the City with a Small Town Heart

Wednesday June 27, 2012

$88

Medina, Middleburg Hts, No. Olmsted, Independence, Beachwood, As Applicable

This all-new tour starts with a stop at Shearer's Potato Chip Company, the maker of some of the freshest snack foods we have all enjoyed for years. Then it's off to Kidron, the home of the just-expanded Lehman's, it's like going shopping and visiting a museum at the same time, offering thousands of products you thought they had quit making years ago. You'll find lamps, wood-burning stoves, kitchenware and garden supplies. As has been their tradition, if you prefer to take a few minutes to relax, you can visit the Buggy Barn and relax on an Amish-made hickory church pew.

You'll be dining in the "City with a Small Town Heart" when we arrive at the Das Dutch Haus Restaurant and Bakery in Columbiana's Dutch Village. Today, in the picturesque rolling hills of Northeastern Ohio, you'll be dining on one of their specialties, a homemade roast turkey dinner, giving us a boost of energy to visit the Das Dutch Village Shops.

But there's yet another visit that you are sure to enjoy, the National Packard Museum, dedicated to preserve the Packard Motorcar legacy. It's a world-class museum that collects, preserves and exhibits a fabulous collection of automobiles and, in a leisurely way, brings back memories of how it used to be.