

GERALD FORD'S HOMETOWN & SOUTHWEST MICHIGAN

Shows, Rail Dining, River Cruise and Gardens

Monday - Wednesday July 9 - 11, 2012

$494 per person ($84 single suppl)

Willoughby, Beachwood, Independence, Middleburg Hts, No. Olmsted, Elyria, Sandusky, As Applicable

Here's yet another new tour our staff has developed for your consideration . . . and it's full of great inclusions . . . and two shows. It was first introduced during the 2011 tour season and we've kept it virtually the same for 2012.

- Two nights of rooms in Grand Rapids with breakfast each morning and an evening Manager's Reception.
- A visit to Turkeyville with its restaurant, unique gift shop featuring fresh breads, homemade fudge and their tasty caramel corn. If you haven't been here, you're in for a surprise in the town of Marshall, Michigan.
- We'll be enjoying a matinee show "Don't Hug Me", a musical comedy. The food offered is excellent and a departure from the typical theater.
- You'll have a fine-dining experience as we travel aboard the Blissfield & Adrian Railroad Murder Mystery Dinner Train . . . it's more of an entertainment comedy than what you may think of the typical murder mystery. It's a gourmet meal you're sure to enjoy and an interactive afternoon with the cast of characters.
- We'll be visiting two of the regions highlights, the Gerald R. Ford Museum and the Frederik Meijer Gardens & Sculpture Park, featuring the most comprehensive outdoor sculpture collections in the midwest. This will be one of the memorable inclusions of this tour, actually suggested by one of our Group Leaders from that area who now resides in Ohio.
- With the picturesque summer late-afternoons and early-evenings in this area, we've included a cruise aboard the Grand Lady, followed by dinner.
- And, as we promised, there will be other stops such as the Apple Haus and a tour through a coffee-making shop with tastings of their delicious products. We've added a lot of inclusions in this tour to make it new and unique to travelers.