

IRISH FESTIVAL IN DUBLIN . . . Admissions with Shows Included

Saturday August 4, 2012

$75

Willoughby, Beachwood, Independence, No. Olmsted, Middleburg Hts, Medina, Mansfield, As Applicable

That's right, we'll be traveling to the second largest Irish Festival in this country, held each year in Dublin (Ohio, that is). Best of all, we've selected a date that we could provide you with the maximum number of entertainment venues. This package includes a full day of entertainment, exhibits and shopping or browsing at the Irish Festival's 25th Anniversary.

We'll be arriving mid-day and, for the next six hours, you will be amidst the various shops, vendors and food tents as we prepare for an afternoon of Celtic entertainers and games. Last year's program, which all of our participants enjoyed, featured great dining options, Emerald Arts Isle, three marketplaces, Celtic sports and entertainment (all shows are included in your package) such as Seven Nations on Killian's Celtic Rock Stage, Moya Brennan (from County Donegal), Scythian (a four-man band with styles ranging from traditional Celtic to Celtic Rock) and the 78th Fraser Highlanders Pipe and Drum. (Specific shows subject to change.)
