MARKET

This tour includes visits to both the Hartville Marketplace and the Holmes County Amish Flea Market . . . plus, you'll have the opportunity, if interested, to visit the new Hartville Hardware's new 240,000 sq. ft. two-story home center being built next to Hartville Kitchen where we will be dining today. After you've selected from several entrees, you'll be able to browse their expansive collectibles shop and chocolate display. Two outlet centers, a new home center, a cheese shop, a great meal with your choice of several entrees, make for a great day at a competitive price.
