We learned about this exciting event from one of our Tour Directors who claims that she has not missed this New York City "happening" in recent years.

At the 25th Annual Broadway Flea Market, "Broadway Cares" raised money by selling everything from rare, original Broadway costume sketches to homemade cupcakes made by company members of your favorite shows. Between 10 AM and 7 PM, more than 25,000 theatre fans and "Broadway Cares" supporters came by to shop for bargains, bid on exclusive experiences and rare one-of-a-kind theatre memorabilia, while meeting some of their favorite Broadway and daytime TV stars. This year's event features tables from Broadway and Off-Broadway shows, management offices, unions, production offices and other theatre-related businesses.

Since many Broadway and Off-Broadway shows are offered as matinees on Sundays, you'll have a chance to enjoy a show, before we depart at 8 PM on Sunday evening for home, since tickets to most shows are generally available. Why not discover this new New York City Express to the Flea Market and Grand Auction in 2012?
