Here's an opportunity to enjoy a fall day in Niagara-on-the-Lake, about twenty minutes from Niagara Falls, and a total contrast to that destination. This unique town is lined with shops, boutiques and other fascinating places to shop and browse. Niagara-on-the-Lake is home to the Shaw Festival. You'll also be seeing the majestic Falls as we travel. But this is just the start on our tour to this a quaint village.

Our choice of Inns for our luncheon is nothing less than the Pillar & Post Inn . . . where Queen Elizabeth once dined due to its fine dining and ambiance. Built in the 1800's, it's just a short walk from the historic area and offers the elegance of this town, originally the home of a number of successful sea captains. We really do "treat you royally". Then it's off to shop the stores and boutiques in town and, before leaving Canada, we'll be stopping at the Duty-Free Shoppe for some nice savings. (Passport or Passport Card Required).
