Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, which lies in the center of the Lehigh Valley, was originally settled by the Moravians and was named after the town of Bethlehem in Judea. Christened "Bethlehem on Christmas Eve 1741, it is a city rich in tradition and celebrations. This city has maintained much of its historic heritage and Christmas time is a widely celebrated season in this city known for its rich colonial and industrial history. This is the package you've probably heard about an seen highlighted on television.

In Bethlehem we'll have accommodations at the new Sands Resort & Casino which opened last year. For those interested, you'll have time to enjoy some gaming action in their casino. The inclusions are truly new in this comprehensive package. Five meals are included (two are by a $20 voucher) plus $60 slot play at the resort. A Bethlehem-By-Night Guided Tour as we travel back in the time of steel stacks with the heart-warming holiday musical, the heart-warming "Christmas 1944", in the Musikfest Cafe. Last year's menu was a "duet" of grilled lemon chicken and medallion of beef plus warm apple pie.

Christkindlmarkt should be a highlight, and one of the reasons we've selected this date for this new tour. Recognized as one of the top holiday showcases aisles of handmade works by the nation's finest artisans amidst the sounds of live Christmas music. Having begun in Germany, these festive markets date back to medieval times. Since the Bethlehem program coordinators are still finalizing their 2012 package, specific details may vary.
