DEAL WITH GREAT DAY! TOURS . . . DON'T RISK LOSING YOUR DEPOSIT

Our policy is simple: Should you book a group tour package (where we make all the reservations) and cancel due to lack of people, the tour deposit/coordination charge is transferable to the final payment for the next group tour package booked. The tour may be cancelled up until five weeks prior to the original departure date in order to have that deposit transferred. Payments not refunded to us from our suppliers are, of course, neither refundable, nor transferable, to your group. Please remember that we can typically run the same tour with fewer passengers, including any distancing your group may prefer, although the price per person may increase. All credits are good only through the Great Day! Tours office. Receipt of deposit will be considered as acceptance of terms and conditions.

Creative Salvation: If you're having difficulty filling a bus, call our Tour Office (before you cancel the trip), to discuss alternatives for "salvaging your trip". In many cases our Reps will be able to suggest ways for your group to still take their trip, even with fewer passengers. This often permits the tour to operate and reduces the chance of lost deposits. We also offer a number of Scheduled-Departure Tours that do not require the group to fill the bus.

Travel Insurance: Travel Insurance is an option available for any group tour passengers. See Page 39 for details. Please note that the entire group does not have to purchase this additional protection, just those wanting it . . . but please be sure you let them know of the availability of this protection.

Beachwood / Orange, Independence, Middleburg Hts, No. Olmsted, Medina, Mansfield, Grove City, As Applicable

April is such a beautiful time to travel through the Southwestern portion of our great country as we enjoy the early-awakening of Spring flowers and all that nature brings during April to travelers. Our selection of dates, the inclusion of select cities visited and the blend of upscale meals we are known for, are probably the reasons that this tour, offered in alternate years, continues to impress our guests. While this tour will be visiting several popular cities in the "Lone Star State", more time will be spent in historic San Antonio, the "Centerpiece" of this popular Great Day! Springtime Tour. And, during late April, daily high temperatures typically range from the high 70s to the mid-80s.

We also have a number of great inclusions since our Tour Planners scheduled this tour so that it coincides with the dates for Fiesta San Antonio. Since Texas is known for its great steaks, guess what we've included in this "delicious tour package since, as always, this package included 22 meals. While this event now includes all kinds of food and activities, in town and along the Riverwalk, it actually started back in 1891 to honor the memory of the heroes of the Alamo and the Battle of San Jacinto. Now, in 2026, Fiesta continues to be a time during which groups "party", as you be finding out after your Monday evening cocktail reception . . . and the Parade of Lights River Parade on the San Antonio River, as you will be discovering!

There are so many other inclusions to this tour that travels through other cities in Texas including Fort Worth and Waco, and many fascinating destinations in Louisiana where we will be experiencing both the differences between the Creole and Cajun cultures, Arkansas, Alabama and, of course, the other states along our route. These inclusions are too numerous to list everything, as well as any changes that may occur in this Tour Book, but the expanded description will be available on our website, www.greatdaytours.com, or you can call for a detailed flyer to be sent to you.

HELPFUL HINTS WHEN PLANNING A TOUR

- Narrow down the tours that you are considering to two or three choices and present each option to the group.
- Give your group enough advance notice of the tour date(s).
- Find out the price range the group is willing to pay and how inclusive they would like the package to be.
- Give your group specific deadlines for signing up. Then offer the tour to friends of group members already on the tour.
- Base the price on fewer than a full bus (possibly 30-38). The passengers will never refuse a refund or an additional meal on the tour if you get more passengers than you expect. We typically price group tours this way.
- Advertise your tour at your local senior center, church, workplace, social media, local paper or newsletter.
- After sending in your deposit, have your Great Day! Tours Rep create a promotional flyer.
- Never cancel a tour without contacting Great Day! Tours. We will do our best to help you salvage your tour.
- Great Day! Tours motorcoach packages make great fundraising events.
- Don't forget about our Scheduled Tours that don't require your group to fill a bus; "comps" are still available.
- We can customize any package you are considering - even if it is not in this book. Beware of out-of-state companies that offer low-price packages. Our tour experts can design a more "inclusive" tour at a great rate for what you get.
