Departures, as applic: No.Olmsted, Middleburg Hts, Independence, Beachwood/Orange, Mayfield, Ashtabula.

Enjoy this new tour as we travel to some yet-to-be-discovered destinations with you. During our first day we arrive at a resort that offers spectacular views of marinas and Alexandria Bay. Dinner awaits us here. The next day, a relaxed pace has been planned with a luncheon-cruise in the 1000 Islands. Be ready to be impressed with Millionaire's Row, where many of the world's richest tycoons built their summer cottages in the Victorian Age. You will be touring the 120-room Boldt Castle, built as a wedding gift from millionaire owner of the Waldorf Astoria Hotel in New York City, George Boldt.

We will be traveling east with a stop at the International Boxing Hall of Fame in the hometown of legendary boxer Carmen Basilio, before continuing into Cape Cod where our dinner offers you a choice of a lobster or prime rib. Our Guide will be taking us on a tour that includes Hammondsport, the former home of John F. Kennedy. Next, it's on to the Cape Cod National Seashore, as we continue to Provincetown, the Tip of Cape with its quaint homes and lighthouses. The next day finds us in Sandwich, Cape Cod's oldest town, founded in 1637. Here we tour the Sandwich Glass Museum, which displays pieces of original Sandwich glass made between 1825 and 1888 when the Boston & Sandwich Glass Factory operated here. Later, you stop at Plymouth Rock where our forefathers landed in 1620 after a perilous 65 day crossing on the Mayflower from England. Enjoy a lobstering cruise in Plymouth Harbor, watching the captain haul lobsters right on board! Dinner this evening is a delicious buffet at the magnificent Victorian mansion of statesman Daniel Webster. Relax in the original Webster family dining room with its cut-glass chandeliers, stained glass fireplace and gilded mirrors.

There are also several interesting stops as we travel along, including in Hershey, seeing the avenue where the street lamps are shaped like Hershey Kisses! Our next stop will be at chocolate World to board the tram for ride-through tour, seeing the process of chocolate production. Time has been set aside to do some shopping at the factory store and then continuing homeward with lunch along the way. Thirteen meals are included in this tour.
