

Great Day! Scheduled Tour Summary

SUMMER MYSTERY TOUR WITH AMERICA'S 250TH GIFT THUR JULY 16, 2026

Departure locations, if applic: No. Olmsted, Beachwood/Orange, Independence, Elyria, Middleburg Hts.

This Summer Mystery Tour combines a unique perspective of a region and makes interesting stops, and includes a visit with a unique demonstration, followed with a gift to each passenger commemorating "America's 250TH Anniversary" to take home, lunch at a "rumored speakeasy" during its heyday, light treats with a former Commander in Chief, and a stop with a special nod to America's 250th Anniversary! Who knows, we just might be meeting up with one of the Country's former Presidents.

Join with our onboard Tour Director and Driver who just may be taking you to a town that dates back to 1820. Since this is a one-day tour, you have probably already figured out that our destination will not be in North Carolina, Louisiana or Wisconsin today, even though some of our longer tours just might be headed that way.

The Tour Director will be relating the history of the area, including the areas significance during the War of 1812 and the Civil War ... where the city was known play a crucial role in the Underground Railroad. We hope that we have not given out too many details of where we will be visiting today.
