

Great Day! Scheduled Tour Summary

MAGICAL MARITIMES, NOVA SCOTIA, NEW BRUNSWICK & PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND MON JULY 20 – FRI JULY 31, 2026

Departures, as applic: Elyria, No. Olmsted, Middleburg Hts, Independence, Beachwood/Orange, Mayfield, Geneva or Ashtabula.

The Maritimes are made up of the Canadian provinces of Prince Edward Island, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick. The region has both islands and peninsulas, offering dramatic views and experiences of a lifetime as they blend in with the Appalachian Highlands and the Atlantic Ocean. Over the twelve days of this tour, we will be seeing history, sites and landscapes in a package that includes twenty-three wonderful meals.

Monday – Embark with your fellow passengers as we make our way to a destination that our groups thoroughly enjoyed for our recent Anniversary Mystery Tour! East Aurora, New York! We'll stop at a nostalgic "5 & Dime Store" and the famed "Made in America Store", recently spotlighted on several television shows, before heading to our accommodations for the evening... where a buffet dinner awaits us while our luggage is being delivered to our room!

Tuesday – Welcome to Bangor, Maine! Our second stop of this tour leads us to the far North East. A Tour Guide will showcase some of the local charm and history throughout Maine and the Maritimes while we are passing through. Dinner is included this evening!

Wednesday – This morning, we set off for the beautiful Mount Desert Island and travel to Acadia National Park. While here, we will ride to the summit off Cadillac Mountain, the highest point on the eastern seaboard! You will have some free time in Bar Harbor to explore on your own before we take the CAT high-speed Ferry over to Yarmouth!

Thursday – Enjoy a scenic drive along the Evangeline Trail and Fundy Shore, famous for its historic landscape. Our drive will stop in Annapolis royal, where you have time on your own for Lunch and to enjoy the town at your leisure. At the time announced, we will visit the Grand Pre National Historic Site, a 14-acre memorial dedicated to Nova Scotia's early Acadian Settlers. Here you will see the statue of Evangeline, the heroine immortalized by Henry Wadsworth Longfellow. This evening, once we arrive in Halifax, is yours to enjoy.

 Friday – After Breakfast this morning, explore the weathered granite cliffs and artistic charm of Peggy's cove. Returning to Halifax, our Local Guide will take us on a tour of the famous Halifax Citadel while also showing us the cemetery where many of the Titanic Victims were laid to rest. Enjoy the vibrant blooms of the Halifax Public Gardens before our scenic dinner cruise this evening.

Saturday – Rolling Hills and charming rural landscapes make up our morning as we travel to Cape Breton Island. Learn some of the rich cultural heritage with a stop at the Alexander Graham Bell National Historic Site, showcasing his life and numerous experiments. Dinner is included this evening.

Sunday – Experience one of North America's "Most Scenic Drives". The Cabot Trail. We will make a few stops along the way to indulge in some local cuisine as well as admire the ever-changing landscape of the region!

Monday – Say farewell to Cape Breton Island as we board the ferry to Prince Edward Island. A Local Guide will meet the group upon arrival for a guided tour Charlottetown, the "Birthplace of Confederation". This evening we hope you enjoy the authentic lobster supper – a must-try local tradition!

Tuesday – Today our tour will take us to one of the more famous literary settings, the Green Gables House. Made famous by L.M. Montgomery's novel "Anne of Green Gables". Later, we will see the optical illusion on Magnetic Hill and the incredible power of nature at the Reversing Falls, where the Bay of Fundy's high tides reverse the flow of the Saint John River!

Wednesday – Crossing the border back into the United States we journey south through scenic Maine with a Local Guide before checking into our hotel accommodations in South Portland.

Thursday – We depart, after saying Good-Bye to our Guide, to begin our drive home, with stops enroute. Our ride today will have us stopping in Central New York State for a leisurely dinner before checking in to our hotel for the night.

Friday – At the time announced after breakfast, we will begin our final leg home stopping for a lovely lunch at a most popular restaurant in DePew, New York, full of the memories we have from our wonderful time in Nova Scotia and the Maritimes.
