

Great Day! Scheduled Tour Summary

GOTHIC PENITENTIARY: TRAINS & TOYS MUSEUM THUR, JUNE 10, 2027

Departure locations, if applic: Parma/Cleveland West, Middleburg Hts, Independence, Beachwood/Orange, Macedonia, Canton.

This unique tour has been a “creation” of our Tour Staff and includes a combination of history, architecture combined with fascinating exhibits, and narrated touring with, of course, a luncheon served mid-day. There will be plenty of memories or yesteryear, and we do not want to make any inferences related to the West Virginia Penitentiary!

Our first visit will be to a location where many students have received their education starting in the early 1900s. This Victorian era school building was built in 1906 and during the latter part of that century was selected, quite appropriately, for its historical location and design, to become a Toy and Train Museum. These “classic toys” came from many collections. This tour includes not only both admissions but also a narrated tour to make our visit even more interesting, adding to the nostalgic memories of the past as well as enjoying displays that include operating model train layouts.

After lunch and our visit to the Victorian-styled former school, we will be traveling the short distance to a Gothic structure, with turrets and battlements, that dominates the city of Moundsville. The former West Virginia Penitentiary opened in 1866 and continued in operation all those years until 1995. Since that time, it has drawn many (willing) visitors since it is now a fascinating museum and the location where a number of movies and TV shows have been filmed since much of its design was patterned after the previously constructed Joliet Prison.
